Headline:
Sunshine and showers. Warmer than of late.

Today:
Band of cloud and rain across central parts of England turning more showery. Else, sunny spells, but also showers, some heavy in the west, and in the south-east later with a risk of thunder. Warm in southeast England.

Tonight:
Rain, some heavy and thundery across east and south-east England, else clear spells and some showers, these chiefly in the west.

Monday:
Early rain soon clearing from eastern England, but possibly affecting north-east Scotland later. Otherwise, breezy with sunshine and scattered heavy showers and a risk of hail and thunder.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
All parts likely to see a mixture of sunshine and showers, some heavy with a risk of thunder. Perhaps more persistent rain for parts of the south later.
